NEWS FROM MSSD

The Model Secondary School for the Deaf will graduate 15 students on Wednesday, June 14, 1972, at 11:00 a.m. in the Auditorium.

Delivering the commencement address will be Mr. Lawrence Newman, a teacher at Riverside School for the Deaf, California, and a member of the MSSD Advisory Committee. Mr. Newman was named "California Teacher of the Year" in 1969, the first deaf educator to be so honored.

Members of the College community, officials from the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, and some members of Congress are expected to attend. All faculty and staff are welcome to the commencement exercises.

The entire 91-member student body of MSSD will be special visitors at the White House on Wednesday, June 7, and will carry with them a request for President Nixon's support of captioned television. The students, to be accompanied by staff members and representatives from the Council of Organizations Serving the Deaf, will receive a guided tour of the Executive Mansion and hope to present their request personally to one of the Nixon daughters.

SUMMER RECREATION PROGRAM

The swimming pool, which has been temporarily closed for repairs, will be reopened in several days to the faculty and staff of the College, Kendall School, and MSSD.

The following schedule will be in effect until August 10:

Monday - Friday

11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., 7:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Saturday

1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Sunday

1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.

In order to take advantage of this program, each faculty and staff member must have a pool pass. These may be picked up from Reba Hughes in the main gym, weekdays 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

A LOOK INTO THE PAST

At the end of the first year of operation, Superintendent Gallaudet reported that the Institute was serving 18 pupils, all of whom were from Washington, D.C. except one each from Georgetown and Rockville. Gallaudet made a special point that there had been no deaths or serious illnesses.

He also reported that in addition to a $200 gift, Mr. Kendall had also donated one rocking chair, one sideboard, one table spread, one crumb cloth, and a quantity of straw matting.

ON THE GREEN is published for the faculty and staff of Gallaudet College by the Office of Alumni and Public Relations every two weeks during the summer months. Campus news is always welcome. Phone 3326 or TTY 4232.
